Fifth Sunday Of Lent

Scripture Readings: Jeremiah 31:31-34; Psalm 51:3-15; Hebrews 5:7-9; John 12:20-33

"I will be their God and they shall be my people."- JEREMIAH 31:33

What does it mean to be God’s people? It means we recognize that everything we have and everything we are belongs to God. We aren’t “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God has given us. It means we are willing to use our gifts and our lives to care for our family, our neighbors and for people we don’t know, just as God cares for each of us.

I would like to offer a word of gratitude to Mr. Dennis Conz for utilizing his supreme woodworking skills in providing two recent upgrades to our sanctuary: He built a throne for the Divine Infant (of Prague) and a matching frame for the image of the Divine Mercy. These are just the latest of his many talented contributions to Saint James, including the cabinets which house our pew missals and the turned-wood candle stands which flank our pulpit. - Fr. Totton
