Corpus Christi

Scripture Readings: Deuteronomy 8:2-16;
Psalm 147:12-20;
1 Corinthians 10:16-17; John 6:51-58

“Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.”
(1 Corinthians 10:17)

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God’s kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other’s relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our road map to Heaven. Let’s help each other get there!

The Essential Work of Adoration

“Who among you will survive the tribulation that is coming? Only those who will have listened to My plea for...adorers and allow Me to befriend them, and who will give Me their time, their minds and their hearts in the essential work of adoration... I call this work essential because the right order of things has been subverted and because a great disorder and confusion has the hearts and minds of My beloved...Adoration will be...the restoration of the only right order: the order of divine love poured into the hearts of men by the Holy Spirit Who is Love.”

THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

The full name of this feast is Corpus et Sanguis Christi or The Body and Blood of Christ. "The feast of the Blessed Sacrament was established in 1246 by Bishop Robert de Thorte of Liege at the suggestion of St. Juliana of Mont Carvillon. [It was] extended to the universal Church by Pope Urban in 1264. The office composed by St. Thomas Aquinas and customary procession was approved by Popes Martin V and Eugene IV.

St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Louis. She received this inspiration from Our Lord for the following reasons:

- 1) that the Catholic doctrine receive aid from the institution of this festival at a time when the faith of the world was growing cold and heresies were rife;
- 2) that the faithful who love and seek truth and piety may be enabled to draw from this source of life new strength and vigor to walk continually in the way of virtue;
- 3) that irreverence and sacrilegious behavior towards the Divine Majesty in this adorable Sacrament may, by sincere and profound adoration, be extirpated and repaired;
- 4) to announce to the Christian world His will that the feast be observed. (Excerpt from therealpresence.org)
