Divine Mercy Sunday

Scripture Readings:

Acts 2:42-47; Psalm 118
1 Peter 1:3-9; John 20:19-31

“Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’” John 20:19

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, like a new neighbor, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships – with God and each other. When you see yourself as a beloved son or daughter of God, you tend to see others the same way, too – just as God, Our Father, sees us.

Movies, Documentaries, Retreats, Kids Programming, Audio Books, Much More!

At the dawn of the 20th century, three voices rose from Poland to proclaim an urgent message; a message powerful enough to alter the course of an age plunging into spiritual darkness.

Filmed on location in more than twenty cities across Poland and the United States, this true story examines and chronicles the phenomenal lives and spiritual legacy of St. Faustina Kowalska, St. Maximilian Kolbe, and St. John Paul II, modern day “Apostles of Mercy”.
