Easter Sunday
Of the Resurrection of Our Lord

Scripture Readings: Acts 10:34-43; Psalm 118:1-23;
Colossians 3:1-4; John 20:1-9

"...He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him." (ACTS 10:38)

We can't give what we don't have. Open your heart to receive God's love, mercy and forgiveness. Then, show the same to others. As God's adopted sons and daughters, we are made in His image and likeness. As Pope Benedict XVI says, "we are made for greatness." Let our lives reflect His light to others. Pray to live a grateful and generous life. Strive for greatness! We are made for more! We are made for God!

Divine Mercy – Novena of Chaplets Continues

"I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw therefrom strength and refreshment and whatever grace they have need of in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death" (Diary, 1209). For each of the nine days, starting on Good Friday, our Lord gave Saint Faustina a different intention:

- Day 1 - All mankind, especially sinners
- Day 2 - The souls of priests and religious
- Day 3 - All devout and faithful souls
- Day 4 - Those who do not believe in God and those who do not yet know Jesus
- Day 5 - The souls who have separated themselves from the Church
- Day 6 - The meek and humble souls and the souls of little children
- Day 7 - The souls who especially venerate and glorify His mercy
- Day 8 - The souls detained in purgatory
- Day 9 - The souls who have become lukewarm

The Divine Mercy Novena will be prayed at the MIR House of Prayer Chapel at 3 pm every day from Good Friday through Divine Mercy Sunday. The Chapel will close from noon Holy Thursday until noon on Easter for the Triduum, opening just for the Novena prayers.

Bishop LeBlond Scholarships – To apply, your family must be a registered, tithing, active member of St. James Parish. Applications (available in the parish office) are due May 1.
