Thoughts by Father Jonathan Davis

The Epiphany of the Lord. The word Epiphany means manifestation. In the Epiphany He was shown to the nations of the world represented by the three wise men. On this day we remember the arrival of the three wise men also called the three Kings, to worship the newborn King, Jesus Christ. They followed a star which guided them to Bethlehem. The three kings gave Jesus the most valuable gifts. From the book of the Prophet Isaiah which was written seven hundred years before the birth of Jesus Christ, we hear, "Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD. (Is. 60:6)" This prophecy was fulfilled with the coming of the three magi. They gave Jesus gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The gold signifies the royalty of Jesus. Jesus is the King of Heaven and Earth. Frankincense represents His divinity. Incense was offered to a god as a form of worship. The three magi from pagan lands now offer incense to Jesus because He is Emmanuel, which means, God with us. The gift of Myrrh was very significant too. Myrrh was a rich oil used to embalm a body for burial. This signified that Jesus would die. Jesus would die to save us from our sins. We can imagine that Mary kept this oil and it was used to anoint Jesus' sacred Body when He was laid in the tomb on Good Friday. We should follow the example of the wise men when we come to Mass. We come to Mass for the same reason that the three wise men went to Bethlehem. They wanted to adore the King of Kings. We can imagine how the wise men were kneeling in adoration of Jesus Christ. That should be our desire when we come to Mass, to adore Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist on bended knee.
