Fifteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Scripture Readings:

Deuteronomy 30:10-14; Psalm 69:14-37;
Colossians 1:15-20; Luke 10:25-37

“Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’” Luke 10:37
This was Jesus’ command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don’t like. All without expecting anything in return.

Gifts of the Holy Spirit – Piety

Traditionally this part of the gift of the Holy Spirit is about how we act religiously; blessing ourselves passing a church, genuflecting, a sense of reverence when going to receive holy Communion. It is still all these things, but it can mean much more. In interpreting this gift as reverence for all God’s creation we acknowledge the possibility of respect for the environment and reverence due to every person we meet, who like us are children of God and ‘a temple of the Holy Spirit’.

*Dear Lord,
Grant me the spirit of Piety that I may find the service of God sweet and amiable. Amen.*
