Sixteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Scripture Readings:

Genesis 18:1-10; Psalm 15:2-5;
Colossians 1:24-28; Luke 10:38-42

“...I am a minister in accordance with God’s stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God.” Colossians 1:25

We are all called to evangelize – to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel. Our faith is more attractive to others by our actions than by our words alone. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith through our actions and words, especially with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to joyfully express your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

Gifts of the Holy Spirit – Fear of the Lord

This gift of the Holy Spirit gives us the desire not to offend God, as well as the certainty that God will supply us the grace that we need in order to keep from offending Him. Our desire not to offend God is more than simply a sense of duty; like piety, the fear of the Lord arises out of love.

Dear Lord,

Grant me the spirit of Fear of the Lord that I may be filled with a loving reverence towards God, and may dread in any way to displease Him. Amen.
