Sixteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Scripture Readings:

Genesis 18:20-32; Psalm 138:1-8;
Colossians 2:12-14; Luke 11:1-13

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.”
Luke 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. The truth is that many of us need very little. However, we usually want so much more! Stewardship is simply being grateful for all that we are and all that we have been given, and generously sharing all of our God-given gifts with others. Generosity is a gift that opens doors to new relationships with others and with God.

CATHOLICISM: The Pivotal Players! Please join us for Bishop Barron's engaging video series about a handful of fascinating individuals who shaped the Church and changed Western Civilization. Sundays, 10:05am in the Casper Erk Room with coffee and refreshments. Our next session is JULY 24 where we explore St. John Henry Newman, the Convert. On JULY 31 we explore St. Catherine of Siena, the Mystic.

Is the physical world all there is? Is science the only path to ascertaining truth? St. Catherine of Siena witnesses to a higher world beyond the material. Though the 14th century mystic never studied theology and never learned to read or write, her life constitutes a powerful challenge to the flattened-out secularism of our time.

The Fruits of the Holy Spirit - Love

“Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hoped all things, endures all things.”
