Fourteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Scripture Readings: Isaiah 66:10-14; Psalm 66:1-20;
Galatians 6:14-18; Luke 10:1-20

“He said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...’” Luke 10:2

As Catholics we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given “charisms” otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God’s Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say “yes” to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

On JULY 17 we explore St. Francis of Assisi, the Reformer. For more info contact Josh and Lindsey Bachman at jcbachman@gmail.com or (757) 642-2866.

Rebuild my Church! That's the mission Christ gave to St. Francis and it's the perennial task of the church in every age of its life. But how is the reform and renewal of the Church to be accomplished?

The life of St. Francis demonstrates that Christ intends the foundations of true and lasting reform to be built on the solid rock that is the radical witness of the saints.

Gifts of the Holy Spirit – Knowledge

While not dissimilar to Wisdom and Understanding, the gift of Knowledge helps us to know about our faith and about the world. We often talk about making an informed decision and the Holy Spirit helps us in the gaining of that knowledge. The gift requires a contribution on our part – we cannot know about the world just by divine inspiration, but we have the possibility of the help of the Holy Spirit.

Dear Lord,

Grant me the spirit of Knowledge that I may know God and know myself and grow perfect in the science of the Saints. Amen

Prayer for Independence Day

“Almighty God, who has given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech you that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of your favor and glad to do your will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way.

Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom your Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to your law, we may show forth your praise among the nations of the earth.

In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness and in the day of trouble, do not allow our trust in you to fall; all this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord.” AMEN!

Prayer by George Washington, 1st President of USA
