

Thirteenth Sunday
In Ordinary Time

Scripture Readings: Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24;
Psalm 30:2-13;

2 Corinthians 8:7-15; Mark 5:21-43

“...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality.”

2 CORINTHIANS 8:14

One of the tenants of living a grateful and generous lifestyle is giving without expecting anything in return. It is important that we not only grow, nurture and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the “Body of Christ”. We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

There exists a profound relationship between the Eucharist and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The Eucharist sprang from the Heart of Christ pierced on the Cross, the altar of His sacrifice. Thus, the Eucharist is a gift born of His very being and His desire to remain among us always. His infinite love for us would not allow Him to forget about us. Hence, we find the Heart of Jesus living and beating in the Eucharist.
