

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Scripture Readings: Acts 15:1-29; Psalm 67:2-8; Revelation 21:10-23; John 14:23-29

“...Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.” (JOHN 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we often think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you. Make God your first choice and not your last resort.

Bible Study/Catechism Class Continues

If you have ever been curious about the Anti-Christ, the number 666, or the Final Judgment, then mark your calendar to attend our Wednesday night classes on The Revelation of St. John: The Apocalypse.

Perhaps no book in the Bible fascinates people more than Revelation. Yet relatively few people have studied the book, especially from a Catholic perspective.

Through Scripture readings and videos, Author/teacher Jeff Cavins will unpack what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation mean and how Revelation is more than an apocalyptic vision of the "end times."

We will also explore the Church's teaching on the second coming of Christ and the Last Judgment. Bring your Bibles!

Wednesday evenings 6:30pm, Casper Erk Room. Contact information Kelly Bachman bachy@sbcglobal.net.
