

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Ascension of the Lord

Scripture Readings: Acts 1:1-11; Psalm 47:2-9; Ephesians 1:17-23; Luke 24:46-53

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." (REVELATIONS 22:13)

This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work or at school. Living gratefully and generously is an intentional lifestyle. Every decision you make either moves you closer to God or farther away. Choose wisely!

Bible Study/Catechism Class Continues

Perhaps no book in the Bible fascinates people more than Revelation. Yet relatively few people have studied the book, especially from a Catholic perspective.

Through Scripture readings and videos, Author/teacher Jeff Cavins will unpack what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation mean and how Revelation is more than an apocalyptic vision of the "end times."

We will also explore the Church's teaching on the second coming of Christ and the Last Judgment.

Bring your Bibles!

Wednesday evenings 6:30pm, Casper Erk Room. Contact information: Kelly Bachman bachy@sbcglobal.net.

Gracious God,

On this Memorial Day, we pray for those who courageously laid down their lives for the cause of freedom. May the examples of their sacrifice inspire in us the selfless love of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Bless the families of our fallen troops and fill their homes and their lives with Your strength and peace.

In union with people of goodwill of every nation, embolden us to answer the call to work for peace and justice, and thus, seek an end to violence and conflict around the globe.

We ask this through your name.

Amen.
