Thirty-Third Sunday
In Ordinary Time

Scripture Readings:

Malachi 3:19-20; Psalm 98:5-9;

2 Thessalonians 3:7-12; Luke 21:5-19

“...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us.” 2 THESSALONIANS 3:9
Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don’t go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

The Imitation of Christ, written over 600 years ago, is the most widely read book in the world second only to the Bible. And yet, most Christians have never heard of it much less taken the time to read it. Here is your chance! As we draw closer to Advent, St James is making available to your family a copy of this timeless devotional. It’s easy to read and will help you in your spiritual preparation for Christmas. Please feel free to pick up a copy after mass next weekend. And that’s not all! Beginning Sunday, November 27 and continuing thru Advent, we invite you to join us downstairs after the 9:00 Mass as we delve further into the spiritual insights of this Catholic classic. Hopefully, these discussions will inspire you to draw closer to Jesus in prayer and understanding as we draw closer to His Birth and Incarnation.

Tuesday Evenings in the South Side

Continues at 6 PM in the Church Basement

This week’s Dinner will be from Zub’s Katering. Dinner, presentation, fellowship, and discussion. Free will offering. Since dinner is being catered, we are asking that you RSVP to the parish office by Monday morning at the latest if you intend to dine.

Our next video from The Search – Am I Saved? What Jesus did for us through His life, death, and resurrection was the greatest act of love in history. He saved us. He did this for each one of us. Personally. But some might feel unworthy of this gift of love. We may feel we have too much baggage. We may feel unlovable. But God didn’t come to reveal Himself to us on a pedestal; He came to enter into our messy human condition, to fix us from within, to transform us from the inside out. Some might be surprised by how generous the love of God really is. We don’t deserve God’s love, but that’s the amazing reality of God’s mercy. This relationship with God isn’t all about our love for Him. It’s His love for us that changes our lives forever.
