Thirty-Second Sunday
In Ordinary Time

Scripture Readings:

2 Maccabees 7:1-14; Psalm 17:1-15;
2 Thessalonians 2:16-3:5; Luke 20:27-38

“May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word.”

2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

There are two important lessons here. First, we are called to be generous with our encouragement and hope with others. As God shows us mercy, we must be merciful to others. Second, joy is contagious! The joy we receive from doing good works not only strengthens us, it encourages others as well. Share the joy of living your faith whenever you can.

Our next video from The Search – Who is Jesus?
The most beautiful part of this story is this: we can know God’s love personally. This is the person of Jesus. But how did this seemingly insignificant carpenter born into poverty in a dust corner of the Roman Empire become the most pivotal figure in all of history?
Christianity isn’t simply a philosophy for life – the center of Christianity is a person. We look at the life of Jesus and what He came to do. Ultimately, we need to decide if Jesus was really who He said He was. We can’t sit on the fence, because if Jesus really was who He said He was, we need to make Him the Lord of our lives, and everything changes.
