Twenty-seventh Sunday In Ordinary Time

Scripture Readings:
Isaiah 5:1-7; Psalm 80

Philippians 4:6-9; Matthew 21:33-43

“The stone that the builders rejected has become the corner stone...” - Matthew 21:42

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens, but he was still obedient to God, the Father. Similarly, living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be “rejected” by others, but we, too are called to be obedient. Saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is a sign that God is alive and well!

From Nothing to Cosmos: God and Science with Fr. Robert Spitzer

Fr. Robert Spitzer, S.J., PhD., dispenses with the contemporary statement, “Science has proven God does not exist”, and then goes on to demonstrate God’s existence from science, philosophy, medicine, the transcendentals, and metaphysical proofs. Fr. Spitzer is at once entertaining and overflowing with pertinent information.

Episode 1: Science

Has science really proven God does not exist? We will show why science cannot disprove God but can (and does) provide and unlimited amount of evidence for His existence. Fr. Spitzer tells us, “There has never been a better time for finding scientific evidence pointing to God.” The three chapters in this episode will cover material including the scientific method (CH 1), the big bang and the modern universe (Ch2), and the BVG Theorem (Ch 3).
